University Summer Courses offered in Germany for Foreign Students and Graduates • DAAD

Overview

Currently you cannot apply for this programme. Please note the application deadline specified under the Application procedure tab.

This programme aims to help students and graduates improve their knowledge of German (general language, special language) and their cultural knowledge of the country.

Who can apply?

- Applications are open to students in Bachelor's and Master's degree programmes in any subject area.
- Bachelor students must have completed at least two academic years at the start of the scholarship period.

What can be funded?

- The programme funds attendance of language and area studies courses as well as special language / terminology courses that are offered by state or state-recognised German universities and by affiliated language schools.
- You can find out about course providers and programmes on the DAAD website under: www.daad.de/hsk-kursliste [<http://www.daad.de/hsk-kursliste>].
- The courses are taught exclusively in German.

Duration of the funding

- The courses run for at least 18 teaching days (max. 5 days/week, excluding days of arrival and departure) with a minimum of 25 hours of teaching a week.
- The grants are non-renewable.
- The courses usually take place in the period from June to December.

Value

- One-off scholarship payment of 950 euros; scholarship holders from "Least Developed Countries" [<https://www.daad.de/medien/deutschland/stipendien/formulare/dac-liste.pdf>] receive a scholarship of 1,125 euros.
- Payment of a country-specific travel allowance (exception: Western Europe), see: travel allowance [<https://www.daad.de/go/rkp-hskj>]
- Payments towards health, accident and personal liability insurance cover
- Please note:
Course fees and accommodation expenses are usually deducted directly from scholarship payments by the language course provider so that the grant holder is possibly paid only the difference to the full amount of the scholarship by the course provider. The above mentioned payments (including travel allowance) will not be transferred abroad.

Selection

- A selection committee reviews applications

- The most important selection criteria are:
 - previous academic achievements
 - convincing arguments for choice of study programme and subject
 - knowledge of German

Application requirements

What requirements must be met?

- Students of German studies or German language students are preferred.- The minimum age is 18 years.
- The grant holder must be at least 18 years old when he/she starts the funded stay.
- Applicants must be registered at a university of one of the programme-related countries (except Germany) at the time their funded stay begins.
- A scholarship holder may only be considered once in any three consecutive years for a DAAD University Summer Course Grant.

Language skills

- Applicants must be able to follow lectures in German and collaborate in teams.
- Proof of German language skills must be provided with the application.
- The language certificate for the required minimum language should be no more than one year old. Language certificates from B2 or TDN4 in all examined sections may be older than one year.
- The following language certificates can be accepted: onSET-Deutsch, TestDaF, Goethe Institut--Nachweis, DSD, DSH, telc Deutsch, ÖSD-Zertifikat.
- In principle, applicants must provide proof of a minimum language level of B1.

Application Procedure

The application procedure occurs online through the DAAD Portal.

Please note

- In the application form, applicants are asked to specify the courses they wish to take. Applicants should fill in all spaces. The DAAD does its best to consider these preferences when it makes a final decision about allocating places. Important: Because there is only a limited number of available places, however, the DAAD reserves the right to allocate an alternative course.
- It is not possible to change a course subsequently or to discontinue a course.
- Only applications that have been submitted on time and are complete can be considered.
- Ownership of the application documents including all appendices, samples, etc. shall pass to the DAAD without claim to payment. Documents are not returned to applicants. Data relating to applicants is saved by the DAAD in accordance with the Federal Data Protection Act and with the EU Data Protection Regulation insofar as this data is needed to process the application.
