

Hermann Niermann Foundation/Julius Maximilian University of Würzburg: Study Exchange German Language and Literature Studies

Overview

Programme Description

The scholarships enable particularly gifted students, doctoral candidates and (junior) researchers of German language and literature studies to come to the Institute of German Philology at Würzburg University for the purpose of education and (further) training. Candidates from specific countries in Central and Eastern Europe are eligible to apply. The funding covers

- short stays (1-2 months),
- study periods of 1 semester,
- post-graduate programmes (1 year, can be extended by 1 year),
- doctoral studies (1-6 months),
- post-doctoral studies (1-12 months),
- and research projects (1-6 months).

The monthly grant amounts vary depending on the sponsorship purpose. The non-material support entails close mentoring during the courses and/or research projects as well as social events as part of the Institute of German Philology's programme for guest students.
