Date(s)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>23 June - 20 July 2024 (Registration deadline of course provider: 1 April 2024)</li></ul>
Target group	Advanced undergraduate students of business and economics as well as recent graduates and postgraduate students of business and economics
Description/content	Explore the politics and values that underpin one of the world's most influential bodies – the European Union. This interdisciplinary, hands-on programme also focuses on cross-cultural management, marketing for the automotive industry, and the economics of the EU. You will also benefit from an insider view of German business and government with educational visits to a leading automotive company (e.g. BMW or Volkswagen) and German institutions. The "German Culture &amp; Society: Intercultural Perspectives" module will offer you the chance to reflect on your cross-cultural experience in greater detail. Before the start of the on-site programme in Berlin, we will offer a virtual German language preparatory course as an optional add-on. This course is the ideal preparation for your time in Berlin – you will receive fascinating insights into German culture and a crash-course in the German language, all before you have even landed in Germany.
