Description/content	The study programme in International Business (BSc) develops the students' understanding of international business in a globalised world. Based on the latest theoretical concepts of business administration, the programme will equip students with the key business skills to work successfully in an international business environment. Furthermore, the programme offers a range of specialisations that will allow students to deepen their knowledge and meet their individual goals. Students can also participate in specialisations offered at partner universities worldwide. Selected lectures within the study programme include the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Intercultural Communication</li><li>• Business Law in an International Context</li><li>• International Financial Accounting/Taxes</li><li>• Languages</li><li>• International Management (Specialisation)</li></ul> Furthermore, the study programme includes a so-called "mobility window" of three semesters in which the students have the chance to study abroad, to complete an internship abroad, or to write their final thesis abroad.

Course Details

Course organisation

In the first three semesters of the programme, the students participate in basic lectures in business administration and economics. Furthermore, the students learn another foreign language and explore how to communicate in an intercultural context.

The specialisations will be offered in the fourth and fifth semester. Students can choose specialisations offered at the Hochschule Bonn-Rhein-Sieg or at one of the partner universities worldwide. The following specialisations are offered locally at the moment:

- International Management
- Business-to-Business Marketing
- International Financial Management
- Sales Management

In the sixth semester, the students have the option to complete an internship in Germany or abroad or to study abroad, for example, at one of the partner universities. The internship comprises a minimum of 20 weeks (full-time employment).

In the last semester of the programme, the students have to write a final thesis (duration: three months) and complete a colloquium. The thesis can be written in cooperation with a partner university or in cooperation with a company in Germany or abroad.

A Diploma supplement will be issued

Accommodation

Unlike in many other countries, German universities do not automatically provide their students with accommodation. Instead, students must make their own housing arrangements based on their own taste and requirements. There is a variety of options in Bonn or near the campuses in Sankt Augustin and Rheinbach, ranging from dormitories to privately arranged flat shares. For further information, please refer to the website of the International Welcome Centre: <http://www.h-brs.de/en/accommodation-international-students>.

Support for international students and doctoral candidates

- Welcome event
- Buddy programme

General services and support for international students and doctoral candidates

Arrival support: The International Welcome Centre of the Hochschule Bonn-Rhein-Sieg offers a checklist with information for a successful start with your studies. You will get online access to the "International Student Handbook" with information about living in the Bonn-Rhein-Sieg area and studying at the Hochschule Bonn-Rhein-Sieg: <http://www.h-brs.de/en/checkliste-fur-internationale-studierende>.

Services and support for international students: The International Welcome Centre offers a "study buddy programme" that helps international students with daily life in Germany. Students who are already enrolled will support international students, e.g. in completing the necessary bureaucratic procedures: <https://www.h-brs.de/en/target-group/international-students>.
