Services

Possibility of finding part-time employment	It is possible to find a job as a student assistant ("Hiwi") by contacting professors and university departments directly. Information on current job vacancies can also be found on the website of each chair. There are also different offers for temporary part-time jobs outside the university, for example, in restaurants or in shopping malls. Eichstätt and Ingolstadt are the cities with the lowest unemployment rates in Germany.
Accommodation	The International Office at the KU offers a housing service. It helps international students find accommodation, and it facilitates the contact between students and the future landlord or landlady. This service is free of charge. However, a housing service deposit is charged, and this will be refunded at the end of your rental contract. Please find more information on housing at the KU here.
Career advisory service	The KU Career Service and the International Internship Service support students on their way to a career with workshops, tips and individual counselling sessions. An MIB LinkedIn group and the alumni network also support students during their studies and beyond.
