

Information material & Studies

The DAAD publishes magazines, brochures and flyers to inform various target groups about specific topics, funding programmes and studies. Publications for international target groups are available in English and frequently other languages as well.

On our German site [https://www.daad.de/medien-und-publikationen/de/30224-publikationen/] you can find numerous publications which are produced by the DAAD headquarters in Germany and distributed to university staff, academic advisors and others who are interested in academic exchange. Many of the publications are also available from the International Offices at universities in Germany [https://www.daad.de/deutschland/in-deutschland/hochschule/en/9147-der-erste-ansprechpartner/].

Educational Cooperation with Developing Countries - Evaluation

In this publication the DAAD presents the results of the evaluation of the "Higher Education Co-operation with Developing Countries" programme area. The overall goal of the evaluation was to investigate the level of success of the DAAD and its programmes in generating an added value for partner countries, development co-operation, German cultural and educational foreign policy (AKBP) and the institutions and individuals involved.

DIES - International Deans' Course

DIES training courses have been created in response to specific challenges faced by university faculty members at various levels of the organisation. These range from human resource, research and financial management to quality assurance and applying for external funds. Participants in all DIES training courses are assisted in implementing practical changes at their home institutions.
