GOALS AND TASKS OF THE DAAD

○ Three strategic fields of activity:

1

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR THE BEST

The DAAD

- trains professionals and leaders of tomorrow at the best universities and research centres worldwide
- fosters friendships and partnerships for Germany
- creates stable, international networks

2

EXPERTISE FOR ACADEMIC COLLABORATIONS

The DAAD

- shares expertise with German universities, scientific organisations and political stakeholders and enables them to make informed decisions on international academic collaboration

3

STRUCTURES FOR INTERNATIONALISATION

The DAAD

- contributes to improving the quality of research and teaching by supporting cooperation between German universities and international partners
- offers high-quality German study programmes abroad
- encourages German universities to play a greater role in developing academic systems in our partner countries
- enables universities to build bridges that surmount divisions and lines of conflict
- promotes German as a major language of culture and science

Alexander Gerst

Geophysicist, Volcanologist
and Astronaut

My DAAD-funded study visit to New Zealand was an important step on my path to the world of science. It enabled me to gain crucial international experience for my future career. In science – as is often the case in life – we can only truly understand something by looking beyond one’s horizon for a change of perspective.

ANNUAL BUDGET OF THE DAAD

THE DAAD FINANCED 145,188 ACADEMICS IN 2018

 2016, funding period 1 Jun. 2016 – 31 May 2018

 participants in university-preparatory programmes and supervisory university staff
